Our Programs:

[] Seminarians: We desire to have our own, incardinated, priests serving our parishes and missions. To fulfill this desire, the archbishop accepts men considering priesthood, both from within and from outside of the archdiocese. The archdiocese supports these men financially, as needed, during their priestly formation at St. Joseph Seminary and their education at universities in Edmonton, including Newman Theological College.

[] Youth Ministry: The archdiocesan Youth Ministry Coordinator is a full-time position with responsibility for promoting and supporting youth ministry throughout the archdiocese. These efforts benefit all parishes, deaneries and the archdiocese as a whole. Camp St. Martin is the most evident fruit of this program and growing other programs, such as youth rallies and ski trips, is essential.

[] Foreign-born Priests: Our diocese relies on priests from other countries to provide ministry to our people and parishes. The priests who serve us come from countries such as the Philippines, Nigeria, Congo and India. The archdiocese takes seriously its responsibility to ensure these priests are given the necessary tools, information, and enculturation before taking up a parish assignment.

[] Communications: The communications needs and demands of the people and parishes of the archdiocese have now reached a stage where a full-time communications position is a necessity. There are two principal focuses: a strong presence in electronic platforms, especially websites and social media platforms of the archdiocese and its parishes, and the ability to generate our own content for same.

[] Buildings & Property Maintenance: The archdiocese has about 60 churches, 50 rectories, and 29 cemeteries, all requiring care and attention to ensure they continue to meet the needs of the people. Parishes used to be able to take care of their own property but in recent years the responsibility has fallen more and more on Chancery employees. The creation of a full-time position to undertake the tasks related to building construction, renovation and repair projects, and cemetery maintenance and repair assures this essential work is effectively done.

[] Evangelization & Catechesis: The Diocesan Office of Evangelization & Catechesis is intended to be a centre for adult faith formation. Resources and information in liturgy, scripture, spirituality and catechesis are available for use by parishes and the community.
